Description

An handsome and richly detailed French oak side cabinet or cupboard, dating to the late 19th century. Crafted from solid oak this versatile piece showcases the exceptional skill of traditional master carvers. Key Features & Design Details Masterful High-Relief Carving: The central focus of the piece is the stunning, deeply carved panel on the cupboard door. It features an abundant, high-relief harvest motif of suspended orchard fruits, grapes, and stylized foliage, elegantly topped with a carved ribbon bow and set within a shaped cartouche. Architectural Flair: The cabinet is flanked by impressive, heavy pilasters featuring hand-carved acanthus leaf capitals and structured geometric blocking, giving the piece a strong, classical presence. Cushion-Front Drawer: A single, wide drawer sits above the main cupboard. It features a distinctively reeded, convex "cushion" front accented with a carved thumbnail border and is fitted with its original, highly ornate cast brass drop handle. Practical Storage: The single fielded door opens to reveal a spacious interior divided by a sturdy, solid mid-shelf, making it perfect as a side cabinet, hall cupboard, or dining room. Qualit...
