Description

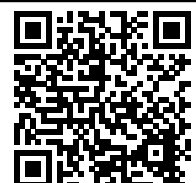

A stylish Art Deco walnut display cabinet, standing on a shaped plinth base and exhibiting the clean lines and elegant proportions synonymous with the period. The cabinet features a pair of glazed doors with distinctive Odeon-style glazing bars, flanked by decorative carved pillars that enhance its architectural appeal. The doors open to reveal a glass-shelved interior, ideal for displaying decorative objects, glassware, or collectibles. Further enhancing the design, the cabinet incorporates glazed side panels, allowing light to enter from multiple angles and providing excellent visibility of the contents within. Presented in good condition, this attractive cabinet is a fine example of Art Deco design and would make a striking addition to any home or collection.
