Description

An attractive antique oak pedestal desk, featuring a rectangular top with a rich oxblood leather inset writing surface. Beneath the top are frieze drawers, each fitted with brass swan-neck handles, while the twin pedestals house three drawers apiece, providing ample storage around a central kneehole. Constructed in oak, the desk displays a warm golden-brown colour with attractive grain throughout. The leather writing surface is finished with decorative gilt tooling, complementing the traditional design. Raised on plinth bases, a particularly nice example. Item Reference: M-6623 . Dimensions: Height – 71.5cm / Width – 114cm / Depth – 68cm / Knee hole Height - 50cm / Knee hole Width - 56cm . CONDITION REPORT: Minor marks, scratches and signs of age-related wear throughout, consistent with use and age. There is some light wear to the edges of the leather inset and occasional cosmetic wear to the finish. Structurally sound and sturdy, with drawers running well. Overall presented in excellent antique condition. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home.
