Description

William IV Flame Mahogany Linen Press with Carved Pediment Item Code: S27-74 A fine William IV flame mahogany linen press of impressive scale, displaying beautifully figured timbers throughout and a rich polished finish. The upper section is fitted with a pair of arched panelled cupboard doors, flanked by carved column supports and decorative foliate corner detail. Below are three long drawers, each with turned wooden handles and central key escutcheons, raised on a moulded plinth base with turned bun feet. The linen press is surmounted by a highly decorative carved pediment, giving the piece strong architectural presence. The pediment is removable, reducing the overall height from 256cm to 225cm, which may assist with transport and placement. A substantial and decorative antique linen press, well suited to a bedroom, dressing room, country house interior, boutique retail display, or period-inspired furnishing scheme. Key Features: William IV period linen press Beautifully figured flame mahogany veneers throughout Pair of arched panelled cupboard doors Three long lower drawers Turned wooden drawer handles Decorative carved foliate detail to the corners Carved removable pe...
