Description

An elegant Biedermeier mahogany chest of drawers of rounded-corner form, raised upon turned feet. The chest features a pleasing arrangement of four drawers with subtly shaped fronts, creating a refined and harmonious appearance characteristic of the Biedermeier period. The drawers are beautifully veneered in matching flame mahogany timbers, showcasing the striking natural figure and warmth of the wood. Each drawer is fitted with carved wooden escutcheons, adding a decorative yet understated detail in keeping with the style's emphasis on craftsmanship and quality materials. The top is similarly adorned with richly figured flame mahogany veneers, complementing the drawer fronts and enhancing the overall visual appeal of the piece. Combining elegant proportions with practical storage, this chest exemplifies the restrained sophistication and fine workmanship associated with Biedermeier furniture. Presented in Good Condition. Size: Height 41" (104cm) Width 39" (99cm) Depth 20" (51cm)
