Description

The knotted-pile face of the charming little 'chanteh' (vanity-bag) comprises six vertical rows of small shrubs in the centre in beautiful, natural colours and soft, lustrous wool and surrounded by three borders - the main ivory border containing a stylised flower and vine pattern. The top finishing is in brocaded technique with slits and lappets in wool for securing the bag. Made during the early 20th century, the bag is in excellent condition with a plain-weave back and original, braided selvages. Size: 28 x 31cm (11" x 12").
