Description

A particularly handsome solid English oak cabinet/tallboy of super quality and interesting design with its angled front and drawers, contrasting darker oak feet, wavy lower plinth and panelled front and doors. The scale on this one means it is placeable into so many spaces - we will let you decide! Condition is very good - a pleasing tone and grain to the solid English oak, original cast decorative handles to the 2 drawers and little cupboard. We have a little sliver of oak out at the back lower left side - not new and not particularly off putting. The cabinet has enjoyed a careful repolish in our workshops and it's clean, neat and ready for placing. Super quality and design on this one C1930.
