Description

Georgian George II Walnut & Gilt Mirror With Original Glass c. 1740 What makes this mirror special is that it retains the original glass mirror plate from c. 1740 which has a very soft lead like colour with attractive foxing & a gentle bevelled edge. The walnut frame has book-matched veneers with a beautiful rich, warm golden tone. To the top there are carved wood, gilded Prince of Wales feathers & a, typical for the period, gilt inner slip. A very attractive mirror of nice proportions that would enhance any room.
