Description

Tall Mahogany Long Case Clock by D Williams of Crickhowell A Good English grandfather clock in mahogany, late 18th/19th century. English grandfather clock, barley twist ormolu capped columns, elaborately hand-painted dial with Roman numerals and gold-plated hands, polychrome painting The Clock mechanism will need to be checked for accuracy. An extremely elaborate timepiece, fantastic workmanship and very collectable. An absolute one-of-a-kind. Country Oak Clock with a Painted enamel face, Arch Dial Rolling Moon phase with a separate seconds dial and date display, the clock has been previously wall fixed and the back floor support has been removed to suit its last position Both a Good Working and Decorative piece both the case and the movement have been restored in last few years, we do recommend that a longcase Clock is set up by someone in the know, it is not too difficult but it needs to be level and it is frequently the best option to fix it to a wall for safety Excellent colour and condition, and comes with weights pendulum and winder key The Clock is 91" tall, 22" wide and 11" deep To get an accurate delivery quote please send us your location.KF157
