Description

Very Rare Early Heals Antique Oak Dressing Chest – Labelled A superb quality early antique oak dressing chest with mirror, an early Ambrose Heal design that dates to 1900 by Heals of London, a special order for a country house bedroom. We have another matching piece. This piece has the Heals makers stamp to the back of a drawer. Beautifully made, very high quality and featuring chequer inlays in holly and box woods. In excellent condition and a lovely even colour. A one off Heals design, commissioned for an English Country Island house, featuring the wonderful Heals squashed heart handles to the six drawers, they are beautifully lined and run smoothly. Under the original mercury plate dressing mirror that is supported by uprights that finish with decorative ball finials. is a lift up, hinged oak storage box. In fabulous original condition and with a generous knee hole area to sit at. Stands well on gun barrel turned legs with a connecting H stretcher on oak ball feet. A very rare early Heals piece, with a matching bedside available. Dimensions Height: 171cm (67.86") Width: 115cm (45.63") Depth: 53cm (21.03")
