Description

A Beautiful Pair of Anglo Indian Library/Side Chairs circa 1830. Other measurement's Seat Width 54 cm and Seat Height 47 cm Key features: Solid rosewood construction. Hand-carved elephant crest centered on the top rail. Animal-head terminals on the arms (appear leonine or mythical). Deep foliate carving around the crest and arm supports. Hand-applied brass nail trim. Cabriole front legs ending in scroll feet. Leather upholstery with significant age and patina. Overall form derived from British Regency/early Victorian library seating, but executed with Indian carving motifs. These characteristics are strongly associated with Anglo-Indian furniture produced for British colonial clients during the 19th century, particularly in southern India where rosewood furniture with carved animal and foliate ornament was a specialty
