Description

1930's Bryn Mawr Welsh Oak Writing Bureau – Labelled A very original Welsh writing desk / bureau by the Welsh company Bryn Mawr. Quite rare to find Welsh Bryn Mawr oak furniture, started by Quakers in 1929 and closed in 1940, so not around for that long. This piece is well made in solid oak and features a fall front writing surface over two long drawers, both run well and have the original oak block handles. Inside the work area is the original leather writing surface along with the original oak built in pigeon holes. On the back of the bureau is the original large oval Bryn Mawr makers label. In very good, solid condition, a rarer piece of Welsh furniture that dates from the thirties. Dimensions Height: 107cm (42.46") Width: 70cm (27.78") Depth: 42cm (16.67")
