Description

An extremely elegant Victorian Scottish agate and gold bracelet. Probably made in Scotland around 1880, given its style. It has six octagonal agate barrels capped with engraved 9ct gold rondels. They connect to a beautiful engraved gold padlock which has a moss agate on one side and a black onyx stone on the other side. Overall it is in very good condition and would make a perfect gift. It would fit a wrist with a 17.5cm diameter. Weight; 35 grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
