Description

Late 19th Early 20th Century Oak cased Regulator with Deadbeat Escapement, Harrison Maintaining Power & Compensation Pendulum. Retailed by the World Famous London Furniture Retailer Maple London. They supplied the very best residences and royal properties. With a Top Quality 8 day Gillett & Johnston of Croydon Movement. This has been Checked, Serviced & Tested to be in Good Full Working Order. The rear of the movement is Stamped with their "Type 1" Flat Bottomed Bell followed by the number 13957. Although they refer to 'clocks bearing the familiar name of Gillett & Johnston' in their brochure of 1906, most were not signed or numbered. This combination of Bell 'Type 1' and a Number have only ever been found on Fusee or Grandfather Movements. There were two other Bell Stamps for other types of clocks. The oak case is good sound and solid with Attractive Graining, Barley Twist Hood Columns, Rope Decorations & Patination. Late 19th or Early 20th Century Height 83.8in or 213cm.
