Description

Edwardian Walnut Cheval Mirror A superb Edwardian walnut cheval mirror of elegant proportions, standing on shaped supports with graceful cabriole legs and a sturdy double stretcher base. The mirror retains its impressive deep bevelled shaped mirror plate, which follows the contours of the frame, creating a refined and decorative appearance typical of quality Edwardian craftsmanship. The frame displays a rich walnut patina and is fitted with turned finials and adjustable side supports, allowing the mirror to be tilted as required. The reverse is finished with a panelled back, demonstrating the quality of construction and attention to detail throughout. Combining practicality with timeless style, this antique cheval mirror would make a striking addition to a bedroom, dressing room, hallway or period interior. Key Features • Authentic Edwardian walnut cheval mirror • Deep bevelled shaped mirror plate following the outline of the frame • Elegant freestanding design • Adjustable tilting mirror • Attractive turned finials • Quality panelled back construction • Sturdy double stretcher base • Graceful cabriole legs • Rich walnut colour and patina • Ideal for bedrooms, dr...
