Description

"A William IV rosewood card table of high quality, with gadrooned edge top opening to reveal red baize playing surface. Carved apron with acanthus and scroll detail, raised on turned pedestal with carved rosewood tulip - very William IV - and quadripartite base terminating in carved s-scroll feet. A formal gaming table with strong decorative execution. Condition Report In excellent antique condition with minor marks consistent with age. Light wear to baize beneath the fold. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch."
