Description

"A fine mahogany mid-Victorian glazed bookcase above cupboard of classical influence, featuring adjustable shelves enclosed behind original glazed doors. The glass retains the characteristic air bubbles and irregularities associated with period manufacture. Below sits a single long drawer above a pair of carved cupboard doors, enriched with applied acanthus mouldings and swag decoration. Raised on bun feet, the piece has particularly pleasing proportions and a well-aged surface that has developed considerable depth over time. For those seeking a larger library or display arrangement, a closely related companion bookcase is also available separately. This unit separates into two sections to ease transportation. Condition Report In excellent antique condition. Both glazed door stiles have developed a slight historic bow, resulting in a small gap between the glass and right stile in the middle. The left-hand glazed door is missing its original pull. Both points are purely cosmetic and do not affect use. Wear is otherwise commensurate with age. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be pr...
