Decorated with fine floral swags in boxwood and with inset geometric panels. With boxwood and ebony stringing throughout and tulip wood banding. With a central door (lockable , key supplied) which opens to access a shelved interior. With original lining material (some marks). All standing on elegant square tapering legs which terminate in spade feet. Offered for sale in very good original condition, with a good colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 111cms Depth 39cms Height 177cms Internal shelf depth 29.5cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple , who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, ...
