Description

A cute little horseshoe charm or pendant in nine-carat gold. Although in modern times many people think a horseshoe has to be a U shape to "keep the luck in", the traditional Victorian horseshoe pointed down and was considered a way to disperse any luck and protect a home rather than holding it in. SIZE: Approximately 1.3 x 1.2cm, not including the bail. WEIGHT: 0.4g. MATERIALS: Nine-carat (375) gold. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: Hallmarked for nine-carat gold, Chester 1948. CONDITION: In very good vintage condition with light surface wear. ERA: 1948.
