Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A pair of Doultton Lambeth faience vases, late 19th Century, decorated by Alberta L. Green, monogrammed, the elongated bodies with everted cylindrical necks, painted with branches of fruits and blossom against a cobalt blue ground, impressed, printed and painted factory marks to bases with numerals '396', height approx 32cm (I believe both professionally restored towards the top, very well indeed.) Well marked the the bases with company stamp and artists initials.
