Description

A rare Victorian antique Scottish silver Luckenbooth or Mary brooch. Made in Inverness by Arthur Medlock circa 1875. This is a very ornate design of brooch with the central entwined hearts surmounted by a crown. This type of brooch originally made for Mary Queen of Scots as a present for her lover Lord Darnley. This one is in excellent condition and is a very collectible piece of silver. It is marked "Medlock" "INS" and has a typically Victorian "C" clasp for the pin. Weight; 20 grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
