Description

A handsome Victorian satinwood chest of drawers dating to circa 1850, showcasing striking grain patterns throughout. The chest is arranged with two short drawers over three graduated long drawers, the lowest drawer cleverly incorporated into the plinth base. Raised on bun feet and retaining its original turned wooden knobs, the piece displays excellent colour and patina developed over many years. Presented in good original condition, with minor age-related wear consistent with use and age. A charming and practical antique chest offering ample storage and timeless appeal. W 123cm (48.5") D 55cm (21.5") H 115cm (45.25")
