Description

Regency Original Painted Pine Antique Chest of Drawers – Originally made in Two Parts This is a lovely English Regency period original antique cream painted pine chest of drawers with original blue line decorations. Originally made in two parts, to access an awkward space, probably an attic bedroom or up a narrow staircase. This Regency antique chest of drawers has not been cut in half later, it has been well made in two sections originally. Featuring two short drawers over three long and graduating drawers, they all run well and have the original turned knob handles. In very good condition throughout and stands on squat bun feet. English, original paint and line decorations, dates to 1815. Dimensions Height: 109cm (43.25") Width: 103cm (40.87") Depth: 52cm (20.63")
