Description

A late Victorian etagere/trolley by William Tonks and Sons, with three open oak shelves applied with brass beads and divided by brass columns with large brass spoked casters. Stamped 3 times WT&S with a sun motif. William Tonks and Sons were founded in about 1784 as a scew maker in 43 Deritend St., Cheapside, Birmingham and by the late 19th century they had expanded enormously with a 664 page catalogue of items for sale and moved Mosely Street. They won gold medals in the Great Exhibitions of 1851 and 1862.
