Description

A superb example of a 19th century portico Clock. The movement is of 8 day duration, needing to be wound once weekly, the movement has an outside count wheel and a Grid iron pendulum, striking the full hours and the half hour on a cast bell giving a very pleasant mellow chime. This most decorative Clock, has been recently overhauled and comes in full working order complete with pendulum and key. For further Clocks and decorative items view our stock page here.
