Description

Antique 18th century Georgian side table in oak, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a single drawer to the front, retaining its original brass handle's, providing practical storage while preserving the character and authenticity of the piece. Boasting a pleasing chunky top with substantial proportions, this attractive side table stands on sturdy square legs, reflecting the timeless simplicity and craftsmanship associated with the Georgian period. Its solid construction and elegant design make it both practical and visually appealing. Displaying gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and natural character. The quality of the timber and classic styling ensure it will complement a wide range of traditional interiors. Presented in good condition, showcasing beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming Georgian side table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
