Description

Antique 20th century low sideboard in mahogany, very well made and of fine quality. A highly distinctive and desirable example, featuring an unusual low-profile design with a generous worktop, making it both practical and visually striking. The sideboard incorporates six drawers in total, arranged as three on either side of a central double-door cupboard, providing an excellent combination of drawer and cupboard storage. Standing on original brass casters, it is enhanced by a raised gallery to the top, adding both character and practicality. Beautifully ebonised throughout, this impressive piece boasts stunning figured mahogany to the drawer fronts and cupboard doors, complemented by elegant black detailing. The exceptional grain, rich colour and decorative features showcase the quality craftsmanship and attention to detail associated with fine period furniture. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this unique and highly desirable sideboard would make a wonderful addition to a dining room, hallway or living space and is a perfect addition to any home.
