Description

Antique 20th century linen fold cupboard in oak, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a two-door cupboard to the upper section, a single drawer to the centre and an open shelf to the base, providing a practical combination of enclosed storage and display space. Beautifully carved throughout with an attractive linenfold design, this charming piece showcases the quality craftsmanship and traditional styling associated with period oak furniture. Retaining its original knob handles and fittings, it stands on elegant turned legs, adding to its character and appeal. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and charm. The combination of decorative carving, practical layout and excellent proportions makes it both functional and visually attractive. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this attractive linenfold cupboard would make a wonderful addition to any home.
