Description

Antique 20th century drop-leaf table in oak, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a practical drop-leaf design, allowing the table to be extended with ease whenever additional surface space is required. The table incorporates a drawer on either side, both retaining their original handles, providing useful storage while preserving the character and authenticity of the piece. Standing on sturdy chunky square legs, it showcases quality craftsmanship and robust construction throughout. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and character. The versatile design makes it ideal for use as a dining table, kitchen table or occasional table, adapting effortlessly to a variety of spaces and requirements. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this attractive drop-leaf table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
