Description

A superb solid oak Arts & Crafts refectory farmhouse dining table dating to circa 1900. Crafted in the traditional manner from quality English oak, this impressive table boasts a thick plank top displaying wonderful grain, rich colour and a beautifully aged patina developed over more than a century. The classic refectory base is of sturdy pegged construction, reflecting the honest craftsmanship and timeless design associated with the Arts & Crafts movement. Comfortable, practical and full of character, this handsome table is ideal for both period and contemporary interiors. Presented in excellent condition, the table is solid, sturdy and ready for everyday use. A wonderful example of early 20th-century craftsmanship, offering both style and functionality for the modern home.
