Description

Antique 20th century large Art Deco wardrobe in burr walnut, very well made and of good quality. A substantial and highly desirable example, offering an excellent combination of hanging, shelving and drawer storage, making it as practical as it is attractive. The left-hand side features a spacious two-door hanging compartment fitted with multiple hanging hooks, while the right-hand side comprises a single-door storage compartment fitted with a fixed shelf, two sliding shelves and two drawers, providing a versatile range of storage options. Below are two drawers, consisting of one large drawer to the left and a smaller drawer to the right, all retaining their original handles and fittings. A beautiful bevel-edged mirror to the centre enhances both the appearance and practicality of the wardrobe, while the plinth base complements the clean lines typical of the Art Deco period. Boasting magnificent burr walnut figuring with gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, this impressive wardrobe displays exceptional character and visual appeal. For ease of transport and installation, the wardrobe separates into four sections. Presented in good condition, this beautifully crafted...
