Description

A superb early 18th-century walnut lowboy/side table of stunning, untouched golden colour and patina. The top features a four-piece match, walnut feather banding, cross-banding, and a cross-grained moulded edge. A well-shaped frieze is fitted with one long and two short drawers, decorated with feather banding and cockbead decoration to the edge, standing on well-shaped cabriole legs. In excellent original condition, having good oak drawer linings and the original domed drawer pulls. Circa 1730
