Description

A particularly attractive pair of walnut open armchairs dating from the late 19th century, beautifully executed in the William & Mary revival taste. The chairs feature tall shaped cane backs beneath moulded crest rails, flanked by reeded uprights and retaining their original woven cane panels. The generously proportioned scroll arms are supported by finely turned and carved baluster uprights, leading down to substantial frames raised on boldly turned legs terminating in carved scroll feet. Of particular note are the impressive pierced and carved front stretchers, displaying flowing foliate and scrollwork decoration of exceptional quality. The rich walnut timber has acquired a warm, mellow patina that highlights the crisp carving throughout. The chairs are currently fitted with loose floral needlework cushions, whilst the underlying cane seats remain intact, allowing the chairs to be enjoyed either with or without the cushions according to preference. Dimensions Height: 53.5 inches – 136cm Height to seat: 18.5 inches – 47cm Width: 26 inches – 66cm Depth: 23 inches – 58cm
