Description

This is rather special very large all original 19th century walnut and grey marble console table. The quality is very high with a fabulous elegant design. Large scroll work front supports and scalloped shaped lower tier. The piece also includes a full width concealed drawer. The marble is original and shows its age handsomely. Old nibbles and marks throughout but nothing that takes away from the piece. The walnut body does have replaced veneer to the front of the base but again old and all part of the originality of the piece. Height 97cm Width 149cm Depth 60cm
