Description

A Nice Pair of Antique Edwardian Silver Plated Low Candlesticks with removable drip pans, designed for a smart table or mantel display. Each candlestick has a broad circular base with a bright beaded border that gives a crisp, finished edge. The bases are enriched with gadrooned and fluted detailing, creating a confident, traditional profile. The stems rise to short, fluted candle cups, keeping the overall height low and well-suited to dining settings where sight lines matter. The removable sconces have richly modelled rims with scrolling and shell-like motifs, adding a decorative flourish at the top – circa 1905. * An easy way to add candlelit character to evenings at home, from formal dinners to relaxed drinks. Measurements: Height: 5" (approx. 12.5cm) Diameter: 4 1/2" (approx. 11.5cm) Total weight: 723g In good condition – The silver plate shows only light surface consistent with age and gentle use.
