Description

A unusual English joint stool made from pine. It dates from the 19th Century and it has a pegged construction standing on baluster turned legs joined by stretchers. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. It has a lovely aged patina and pleasant colour. There are some knocks and marks and general signs of age and use but no major damages and it displays well. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
