Description

SPECIAL NOTE : NO INTERNATIONAL EXPORT AVAILABLE A VERY REASONABLY PRICED EXAMPLE WE BELIEVE THE GALLEONS MAKE IT VERY DESIRABLE / A GOOD SIZED CANVAS A desirable interior designers piece with sought after subject matter depicting French Fleet of Galleons, very well painted with good detail. An antique mirror, usually in a vertical rectangular frame, that features an oil painting, watercolor, or decorative carving at the top is called a trumeau mirror (often pronounced troo-moh). A fine Oil on Canvas depicting a french fleet of galleons at sea. The work is mounted as a gilt trumeau mirror. The whole has a wonderful look and would have originally been constructed to be mounted in a panelled interior. Notice the original panelling which has been retained to re-enforce the back of the frame and behind the mirror section all as found. The painting has a few patches verso, however you would never know as when seen from the front the surface looks fine and well restored restored The lower mirror has been replaced in the past and the frame is all good with the usual wear to gilt. Part of the original backing panel of wood is still in place behind the mirror, ...
