Description

A beautiful vintage Edwardian-style side chair, featuring elegant proportions and refined decorative detailing. Crafted from solid wood with a rich warm finish, this chair displays graceful cabriole front legs, delicate scroll detailing beneath the seat, and a striking shaped backrest with a decorative central splat inspired by Art Nouveau styling. The seat has been upholstered in an attractive floral fabric with decorative brass stud edging, adding charm and softness while complementing the warm timber tones beautifully. This is a versatile piece ideal as an occasional chair, bedroom chair, hallway accent piece, vanity chair, or decorative addition to a classic interior. A stylish and elegant example of traditional craftsmanship. Very good vintage condition. Structurally solid and sturdy. Upholstery remains clean and presentable. Minor age-related marks and light wear to the wood consistent with age and use, adding authentic vintage character. Ready for immediate use.
