Huge c. 1800 Dutch Delft Polychrome Parrot and Lion Vase Chinoiserie Vases Brief Description: This is a huge, fabulous country house Dutch Delft vase dating from the late 18th-century, circa 1800. Measuring a whopping 45.4 cm in height, and complete with the original lid. The piece has a truly beautiful, protruding dog-type finial on top of the lid, which is surrounded by wonderful chinoiserie panels with flowers. The huge vase is delightfully hand-painted with chinoiserie gardens, including exotic birds and an adorable yellow lion. Painted with colours of green, blue, orange, yellow and manganese. Signed to the base with the Three Bells Symbol, which would indicate it came from the factory of De Brie Klokken, although we do not have any evidence to confirm this. Attributes: Delft Dutch Late 18th Century Circa 1800 Factory mark to base: Three Bells Symbol Condition: Offered in an overall beautiful original condition commensurate with age. The rim of the vase has a single chip, and it has had a small repair - see images.
