Description

A young drover guiding Highland cattle, blackface sheep and lambs in a Highland scene One showing a drover guiding Highland cattle and blackface sheep and lambs in a Highland scene with a lake and croft in the distant background. Magnificent realistic definition of the animals and the background landscape and plants, and birds in the cloudy sky. The painting, in its original gilt frame with a gilded slip is in excellent condition with no evidence of restoration of the painting. Frame 153 cm wide, 101 cm tall, 9 cm deep. Paintings 128cm wide and 76 cm tall. A Royal Red Deer Stag and Two Hinds Observing a Distant Stag in a Highland Scene This painting shows a stag with 12-point antlers (a Royal Stag) and two hinds on alert because of a nearby further stag. Outstanding, realistic depictions of the deer reminiscent of Landseer's Monarch of the Glen and wonderfully painted foliage and background with purple heather and flights of birds in the sky. The painting, in its original gilt frame with gilded slip is in excellent condition with no evidence of restoration. Frame 153 cm wide, 101 cm tall, 9 cm deep. Paintings 128cm wide and 76 cm tall.
