Description

A William IV rosewood tilt-topped Breakfast / Centre table on a central heagonal balluster column with concave sided platform triform base. The top shows off the beautiful rosewood grain with bookmatched finish; tilting to an upright position thanks to a brass catch underneath and sturdy brass attachment screws. Ideal for minimising the space and pushing into a corner, showing off the stunning grain to the table top. The base is a triform with concave splayed legs, ending in carved and polished lion paw feet. On original brass castors. Diameter: 47.5 inches (120 cm). Dated: c.1830-45.
