Description

Georgian Sampler c. 1811 Map of England & Wales Needlepoint by Mary Banion 9yrs Brief Description: This is an exceptionally rare, original, George III period Needlepoint Sampler depicting an oval map of England and Wales. Created in 1811 by Mary Ann Banion - 9 Years old. The historic piece is full of character and charm. The little Georgian girl appears to have spelt everything correctly! She even stitched in a border showing a part of France! It is signed by her in the bottom centre. It is a sampler that displays beautifully, having a striking, aged silvered patina. It is mounted within the original, superb-quality Georgian glazed and giltwood frame. Attributes: Needlepoint Sampler Signed: 'Mary Ann Banion' Circa/Dated: 1811 Condition: Both the sampler and the frame are offered in an overall exceptional original condition commensurate with age. There is a small area of fraying to the fabric in the bottom centre - see images.
