Description

Victorian Etching of Orientalist Scene in Gilt Frame, c.1880 A late 19th-century etching depicting an Orientalist scene, with two male figures in traditional dress within a vaulted brick entranceway. Arabic script is visible above the arch. Finely worked with good architectural detail and tonal depth, typical of the Victorian fascination with Middle Eastern subjects. Mounted and set behind glass in a later gilt frame. Dimensions: Frame: 42.5 cm high x 34.5 cm wide Condition: Good condition throughout. No damage to the glass. Ready to hang.
