Description

Harry Stinton (British, 1882–1968) – Watercolour Landscape with Mill and Figures English, c.1925 A well-composed early 20th-century English watercolour by Harry Stinton, depicting a peaceful mill scene with children beside a stream and waterfall. The painting is typical of the pastoral themes occasionally explored by Stinton outside his more widely known porcelain work. Signed H. Stinton lower right. Mounted and glazed in a simple gilt frame with a period card mount. Framer's label to the reverse: J. Lowe, 19 The Foregate, Worcester, suggesting local provenance and likely framing during the interwar years. Frame dimensions: 43 x 34.5 cm Condition: Watercolour in good condition. A few minor surface marks to the frame. Ready to hang.
