Description

Beautifully figured walnut with elegant shaped ends and a finely carved moulded edge, the top has been professionally restored with a new thick black leather writing surface, finished with traditional gilt tooling. Fitted with two frieze drawers and raised on four fluted column supports united by a turned stretcher, standing on carved feet with original brass castors. Finished on all sides, making it ideal as a freestanding table, with excellent knee clearance for use as a desk or writing table. Presented in excellent showroom condition and ready for the home.
