Description

A matching pair of Victorian solid brass and copper Art Nouveau wall lights, complete with the original etched glass and green overlaid shades c.1890. Originally lit by gas, each wall light with frilled wall plate and gas tap at the beginning of the arms. Swept over tubular brass arms decorated with a copper flower plus a brass stem in the Art Nouveau style. Brass lamp holder to the end of each supporting the original shades. Both matching shades with frilled rims, which are decorated with an acid etched design and overlaid with green teardrop decoration. Each presented in excellent condition with perfect shades. We recommend that the wiring is checked and installation carried out by a qualified electrician. 5" wide at the shade rim. Keep up to date via our Instagram channel - sturmansantiques.
