Description

A mid 19th century low and deep seated country house open armchair by the renowned London based Holland & Sons. Raised on turned legs and arm supports with the original brass casters. English c1850 The upholstery was not carried out by us however it seems to be relatively recent and is a rather nice printed cotton chintz with muted tones. In good solid order and very much ready for use. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.
