Description

A late 19th century / early 20th century carved beech stool in the Louis XV style, c.1900. The waisted rectangular seat has a rough stuffed hessian seat raised upon carved cabriole supports terminating in peg feet. Historic tack marks from previous upholstery visible to the edges. Attractive in its present condition, yet ready for re-upholstery if preferred. Small tear to the underside material and some light where to extremities commensurate with age. Generally the whole presents in a good condition and is structurally stable. Great proportions, perfect for use as a small ottoman or generous foot stool.
