Item Reference: SA1222373

Date of manufacture: Edwardian

Description

This cute little cauldron charm (or pendant) dates from 1903, the very beginning of the Edwardian period. It's carved in a green hardstone believed to be serpentine and adorned with a sterling silver handle and three little feet. SIZE: Approximately 2.5 x 1.2cm. WEIGHT: 2.8g. MATERIALS: 925 Sterling silver, green hardstone - likely serpentine. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: Hallmarked on the handle for sterling silver 1903. Also stamped with the sponsor's mark HG&S, likely Henry Griffin & Sons. CONDITION: In very good vintage condition, there are some tiny areas of chipping around the holes but these are likely to have caused when the silver fittings were originally inserted. ERA: 1903.
