Description

An elegant Arts & Crafts style silver pedestal bowl, by renowned silversmiths Nathan & Hayes. The bowl features a striking lobed design, both to the body and foot, creating a bold yet refined silhouette. A delicately chased border with stylised scrollwork encircles the upper section, adding a subtle decorative touch without overpowering the form. The highly polished surface highlights the exceptional hand-finished quality. Raised on a domed foot with repeating lobed motifs, the piece reflects the firm's characteristic craftsmanship and flair for architectural form, Chester hallmarked for 1908. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION Height: 12 cm Diameter: 14 cm Condition: Excellent Original Condition Circa: 1908 Materials: Silver Silver Weight: 372 grammes SKU: 9475 ABOUT Nathan & Hayes Nathan & Hayes was a distinguished British silversmith partnership between George Nathan and Ridley Hayes, active from the late 19th to early 20th cent...
